

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Judith Weiner, office manager
Zion Lutheran Church of Pittsfield office@zionlutheranpittsfield.org
(413) 442-3525

PITTSFIELD: ZION LUTHERAN PRESENTS “BEER & CAROLS,” WEDNESDAY 12/20, 7:00PM

Zion Lutheran Church presents “BEER & CAROLS” on Wednesday, December 20 at 7:00pm at Zion Lutheran Church, 74 First St, Pittsfield. “BEER & CAROLS,” is the fifth annual installment of Zion Lutheran’s popular Christmas sing-along, and is intended to gather people together for a lively night of popular Christmas carols and songs.

Leading the evening will be pianists Amy Renak and Timothy Weisman, along with Daniel Broad on string bass.

Light food and non-alcoholic beverages will be served to all; beer & wine will be available for purchase. Everyone is welcome—there is no admission fee—and all seating is general admission. A free-will offering will be taken to support the Cathedral of the Beloved, an outdoor worship and meal ministry in downtown Pittsfield reaching the homeless and the underserved.

ABOUT ZION LUTHERAN CHURCH:

Organized in 1859, Zion Lutheran Church of Pittsfield is the oldest, continuously-operating Lutheran church in the New England Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, one of the largest Christian denominations in the United States. The Rev. Timothy Weisman serves as the fourteenth pastor of Zion Lutheran Church.

IN BRIEF:

“BEER & CAROLS” presented by Zion Lutheran Church

Wednesday, December 21, 7:00pm

FREE, no admission fee, no cover charge

Light food and non-alcoholic beverages served; beer & wine available for purchase

Free-will offering to support the Cathedral of the Beloved

<http://www.zionlutheranpittsfield.org/>